Mary Funk	Aprons for the guild project
Jackie Rudolph & Kim Cawthon	Various binding techniques

Rent Increase/Moving Committee Reports:

The board narrowed the selections of the meeting places to three:

Unity Church –435 & Antioch, includes storage, rent is $175 /$1,925, and 200 parking spaces.

Unitarian Universalist Church – 93rd & Pflumm, includes storage, rent is $100/$1,100, there will be rooms for workshops and maybe quilt shows, there isn't a stage in the Fellowship Hall but there is plenty of parking.

Countryside Christian Church – Mission/Current space, includes storage, rent is $200/$2,200 with a flat rate of $2,200 a year, and includes parking for 92 spaces.

Janette Sheldon made a motion to proceed with moving to the Unitarian Universalist Church in January. Teri Oberlin seconded the motion.

It was suggested that we have an open house in December for the members to see where the new location is before the January meeting. We will announce the new location at the August meeting.

Quilt show Update:

Janette Sheldon was looking for a twin size bed for the bed turning. Donna di Natale is working on getting a scissor sharpener. We are needing two more vendors for the show. Donna suggested on having a membership booth at the show.

Committee Reports:

Facebook – Michelle Cour said she would like the board members to post something once a month to Facebook to have a variety of posts besides just what she posts. There are two Facebooks now, one public and one private. She will try to close the private one down and incorporate everything to the public one.

Regional Quilt Festival - Janette Sheldon will handle the quilt registration.

Membership – Donna di Natale reported that we have 130 members' now.

Block of the month – Janette will do the block of the month next year. She suggested having a drawing. Each person who brings in a finished block each month will get a chance to win all the blocks that month.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:50 p.m.
