

Officer & Committee Responsibilities

Below is a list of the Starlight Quilters Guild offices and committees and a brief description of their respective duties. This information is provided to you for two reasons: (1) so that you will know whom to ask a question, and (2) so that when you volunteer for one of these positions you will understand the duties. More detailed job descriptions are available upon request and can be found on the guild's website.

PRESIDENT - Presides over monthly meetings and guides the guild officers in achieving the SQG Mission.

VICE PRESIDENT - Assists the President when needed; presides at meeting when President is absent; learns duties of President in preparation for office the following year.
