- Have 9-10 vendor spaces rented.
- Will not be getting extra racks.
- Jennie will make ribbons.
- Peggy Skaith and Pam Lanza are in charge of the boutique.
- Donna Holloway will handle checking quilts in and out. She needs to get entry form to Pam for the website.
- Susan Tuttle will be in charge of hanging the quilts.
- No charity sew and no bed turning this year.
- Samples of charity quilts will be hung for display.
- Challenge entries will also be displayed.
- Some of Sandy Fey's quilts will be displayed.
- The Opportunity Quilt needs to be scheduled for events/quilt shops to increase ticket sales.

CHARITABLE ACTIVITIES

- A discussion of the suggestions submitted for community service projects was held.
- Many different thoughts presented.
- Guild will be asked to vote to provide input to the Community Service Committee but the final decision may be left to the board.

AUGUST PROGRAM

- Cynthia Parry will be the speaker in August. She will discuss the quilts she made reflecting the tsunami in Japan.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

- Newsletter
  - Paper copies have been requested for the membership directory. Decision made that the guild will cover the cost of paper directories this year for those individuals receiving paper newsletters. In the 2020 budget, the dues for those receiving paper newsletters will be increased to include the cost of paper directories.

- Library
  - Cheryl reported difficulty locking one of the cabinets. This needs to be explored and discover what is keeping it from locking so it can be fixed.
- Website
  - A list of Guild officers will be added to the website so it can be found easily.
- Accuquilter
  - A guild member has asked how this investment is used, who uses it, and who decides the purchases of new dies?
  - Cheryl said that the cutter is available to any guild member at all sew days, all guild meetings, and she will meet individually with members who request to use it.
  - She recently ordered some new dies including one for strips.
- Retreats
  - Unity Village has raised their price for retreats in 2020. Other locations are being explored as the price increase would probably keep guild members from attending.

Old Business

- 2018 Quilt Show Expenses
  - Chrysa Zinser, who was in charge of vendors at the 2018 quilt show, has expenses that were not reimbursed. Documentation was requested but has not been received regarding amount of expenses and what the expenses were for, so no reimbursement will be made.
- Denim Shirts
  - 2 shirts left to be distributed. If those are not picked up in July, they will be sold. Four shirts from members who did not renew their membership in 2019 will be sold. Additional extra shirts will also be sold.

New Business

- Lanyards
  - Motion made and seconded to spend up to $50 to purchase lanyards to designate leadership of the guild at meetings. Motion carried.
- Nominating Committee
  - Jean Turvey, Kim Cathon, and Mary Honas will serve as the nominating committee.

The board meeting was adjourned at 7:50 pm. The next board meeting will be October 15, 2019. The library location is TBD. Janette Sheldon will schedule a library location.
