

YET ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL QUILT SHOW HAS COME AND GONE

Starlight's Stitch in Time 2018 quilt show has come and gone. All reports would indicate it was a smashing success. We hung a total of 112 quilts (that doesn't include the special collection of quilts on a stick) and had 390 in attendance plus volunteers. Thank you all - not only our members who volunteered, but their families as well. This show can't happen without your assistance.

Our winners this year are as follows:

A - small/medium quilts

1st - Lois Bozarth, Life Began in a Garden

1st quilter - Lois Bozarth

2nd - Deb McCurnin, Tulips Tulips Tulips

3rd - Shirley Lewis, The City

B - large quilts

1st - Carol Cleary - Loyal Union for Jim

1st quilter - Carol Cleary, Mary Jo Crider and Esther Kempker

2nd - Jean Patchen, Winding Way

3rd - Carol Cleary - Swoon Time 3

C - small/medium I did it all

1st - three way tie between the following:

Lois Bozarth, Hillside Hamlet

Sue Howard, Sophie's Garden

Bernadine Farrow, All Around Town

2nd - Janette Sheldon, It's Definitely a Wonder

3rd - Marilyn Carr, Christmas Train

D - large I did it all

1st - Carol Cleary, Oh My Stars

2nd - Sue Howard, The Mystery of the Salem Witches' Quilt

3rd - Sue Howard, Words to Live By

E - group project

1st - Rowdy Robins, Friends Create Ripples of Good Feelings

1st - quilted by Peggy Skaith
2nd - Mary Honas, 2004 Opportunity Quilt

F - miscellaneous

1st - Pamela Avara, Seville Mellow Yellow Rug
2nd - Donna di Natale, It's Raining Cats and Dogs
3rd - Janette Sheldon, Carry All Bag

G - original

1st - Susan Stevenson, Dining in Precarious Places
2nd - Pamela Avara, Gift Wrapped - The Forgotten Quilt
3rd - Pam Lanza, Angela's Graduation Quilt

Best in Show

Carol Cleary - Oh My Stars