Committee Reports

Kansas City Regional Quilt Festival- Kim Cawthon

Each guild to present a block pattern to the KCRQF for a quilt to be made from presented blocks. We will send our block pattern for our Starlight Quilt Guild logo for their consideration.

SQG Quilt show- Janette Sheldon/Kim Cawthon

An area for sewing on charity quilts and items will have a space this year. Bernina will be supplying 6 sewing machines for guild members to use during the sew times. Sign up sheets for times to come sew will be at the July guild meeting.

Goal of this year's quilt show is to "break even".

Community Services Update- Renee Arnett

SQG has already collected 78 quilts and 200 dream bags for Project Warm Embrace(PWE). Several quilt shops have volunteered to work with SQG for PWE. First City Quilts in Leavenworth will be having a sew day 8/15 from 2-7 PM for PWE quilters to work.

Coordinator for Quilt Collection KCRQF- Pamela Avara introduced.

Bylaws review and update- Margaret Welch

See attached Bylaws working draft. Red highlights- original revision, Yellow- remove. Blue new revisions.

Discussion regarding $10 fee paid by members for USPS mailing of newsletter. Should it be in the bylaws under membership-decision NO. It is a policy to help defray costs for mailing out newsletters.

Motion made to change in the bylaws from contract copies for speakers be provided to the Treasurer by January to be provided in a timely manner. Seconded by Kim Cawthon.

Bylaws will be updated and sent to the SQG Board members for their review and either accept/decline revisions. Goal will be to have Bylaws approved by SQG Board by August and published to the guild members in August with a vote by the membership in September. If there are major questions regarding bylaws as written currently they will be tabled until the October SQG Board meeting. Margaret will update Bylaws and send to Board members.

New Business-

Opportunity Quilt for 2019 has been sent to the quilter.

Mary Funk brought up the potential for SQG to have quilts displayed at the Shawnee Indian Mission the 2nd weekend in October. They have asked us to again participate in their Fall Festival. Kim Cawthon offered to go look at the potential display space to see if it would be a good spot to hang quilts. She will report back to the board and membership. Then decision can be made to participate or not.

Group Project- Connie Passaro presented idea about making Fidget blankets for Alzheimers/Dementia patients. She will present to the guild membership at July guild meeting.

Janette Sheldon made motion for meeting to be adjourned and Sandy Fey seconded. Meeting adjourned at 8:00 PM.

Next Board meeting is October 16, 2018 6:30-8:00 PM at the Lackman Library.
