President's Message

As many of you have noticed, our meetings at COR are running more smoothly. Thanks to this are in part due to Adam, our IT guy who makes sure the microphone is on and the Zoom eye is working. Adam is an earnest sort of fellow and easy to tease. I usually tell him we will rub off on him and we are going to turn him into a man quilter. Maybe one of these days he will surprise me during show and tell with a quilt.

After this past meeting, Adam came to me and said he noticed no one had approached a clutch of visitors and welcomed them. He said, "I was hoping someone during the break would approach them." It was one of those moments that I wish I could have done over.

Covid has made us all thirsty for time with our friends, and it is so much easier to talk to someone you know versus a new acquaintance. I recall my first time visiting at a Starlight meeting and walking into a big room full of people who knew each other and not knowing anyone. It's hard. Starlight is collectively our club and we each share in the inclusiveness of our club.

If you see a new face, welcome them. Tell them why you like Starlight and encourage them to get involved. That is the easiest way to meet people and we have a whole lot of volunteer needs of every different level of commitment. Better yet, both of you sign up for something-but I digress. A welcome and a smile can go a long way to making a new quilting friend!

---Help Wanted---

Looking for a Volunteer!

Ashley Scott, our hospitality person who checks people in for meetings, needs a helping hand. It is a great position to get to know members! If you are willing to help, please contact Pam Lanza Jocalanza@yahoo.com.

October Program: Lynne Hagmeier

Lynne Hagmeier, owner and creator of Kansas Troubles, will present our September program. Lynne has been quilting for over 30 years, has created hundreds of quilting patterns, published two dozen books (five in a series of historical quilts as well as quilters' journals) and designed more than 70 collections of fabric with Moda. Lynne and her husband Robert have their shop in Bennington, KS, where she hosts KT & Friends Retreats. Come and enjoy her story and her quilts!

A Gem of a Quilt Show

It's almost here! While we will be sad to see the lovely month of September behind us, we're looking forward to the quilt show on October 1 and 2! Details about show dates and times, admission cost, list of vendors, and volunteer signup can be found under the "A Gem of a Quilt Show" tab on the Starlight Quilters Guild website.

If you missed the Suffrage Quilts display at the Johnson Co. Museum or KCRQF exhibit, the quilts will be displayed at our show. You will have an opportunity to vote for your favorite. Ruby Red challenge quilts and 2021 challenge quilts will also be displayed for viewers'-favorite voting.

Quilts, Boutique, and Bake Sale Items

We're encouraging you to turn in your quilts at the September 28 guild meeting. If you're unable to do so, you can bring your quilts to the show venue on Thursday, September 30 between 1:00 and 3:00 p.m. Boutique items can be turned in at the September meeting. Bake sale items can be dropped off between noon and 6:00 on Thursday the 30th or at any time during show hours.

Volunteers

We still need volunteers for a few time slots. Most urgent needs are white gloves on Saturday and working the Boutique between the hours of 11:00 and 3:00 on Saturday. You can access the volunteer signup by clicking on the link in the website or sign up in person at the September 28 guild meeting. If you have a guild shirt, please plan to wear it while you volunteer. If you are unable to volunteer, please plan on attending the show to enjoy your fellow guild members' incredible work.

We're asking that EVERY guest and volunteer wear a mask to protect the immunocompromised and children under twelve. Disposable masks and hand sanitizer will be provided.

Please tell your friends and family about the show and ask everyone to "like" and "share" show details with friends on social media or in person. We're excited about the opportunity to showcase our wonderful guild and look forward to your support and participation.

See you in October!

2021 Quilt Show Chairs

Opportunity Quilt Drawing on Saturday, October 2 at 3:00pm

The winner for the 2021 Starlight Opportunity Quilt will be drawn during the SQG Quilt Show on Saturday October 2 at 3:00pm. Winner need not be present to win.

Please purchase your tickets or turn in all of your ticket sales to me by noon on Saturday October 2. I will be at the September guild meeting and the Starlight Quilt Show on October 1 and 2 for your convenience. You can also call me to arrange for pick up or delivery of your ticket sales. I'm very flexible.

Each SQG member is asked to sell or purchase $20 worth of Opportunity Quilt tickets for this guild sponsored annual fundraiser. Opportunity Quilts are a common fundraiser for area quilt guilds as a way to raise funds for guild expenses beyond what membership dues will cover. All of the proceeds from Starlight's Opportunity Quilt ticket sales go to programming as a way to continue to inspire YOU as a member with speakers and trunk shows that educate you about the many facets in quilt making.

I'm interested in your new ideas and suggestions to help the 2022 SQG Board and Opportunity Quilt Chair plan for next year. Email me at StarlightQuilters@gmail.com
Thank you!

I welcome your ticket sales anytime during these remaining days before we draw a winner. You can find several helpful resources on the Opportunity Quilt page located on the Starlight Quilters Guild's website, e.g., PDF form to track your ticket sales, PDF flyer with QR code to share with family/friends, and a link to PayPal to purchase Opportunity Quilt tickets.

Providing Security Through Blankets

Greater Kansas City Area Chapter

Last year around the holidays, we gave out over 5000 blankets. This year we already have requests for over 6000! Last year we gave out everything we had!

As the weather is cooling, we need to gear up toward meeting that need. Please make blankets! The urgent need is for blankets that are 40 X 40 and up, we can use only a very few of the 36 X 36 size. We need blankets that are going to be warm for winter. It is important that we start to collect these and get them labeled, I must have them all by mid-November so please let's get busy!! Spread the word too!!

~Mary Honas
